

Kempton University of Applied Sciences, Germany

Summer School 2019 on „Data Science for Everyone“

Practice-orientated high class program with two guest lecturers from Michigan State University

- Dense 9 day program of academic courses & practical training
- 4 ECTS credits for your studies
- An awesome social program to get to know Germany & its culture
- Visit BMW world as well as Robert BOSCH GmbH, a leading German company
- Small group of selected international students, max. 20 participants
- Intercultural competence through an intercultural training and also through cooperation with students from all over the world
- Important international contacts and friends

Target group

- Bachelor students of all study programs, in particular technical or economics degree programs from the end of the first academic year. Previous knowledge in Data Science is not required.

Language skills

- During all lessons and courses English will be spoken. Therefore, good knowledge of English is essential.

Fees

- Standard fee: 695,00 €
- The fee covers the course, documents and a certificate, a company visit, the social program (transfer & entry fees) & free wifi on campus
- Travel, accomodation, meals, visa & pocket money are not included.

Dates

- July 22, 2019 - July 30, 2019; arrival on Sunday, July 21, 2019

Location

- Kempton University of Applied Sciences, Bavaria, Germany

Accomodation & meals

- At your own choice and responsibility. We recommend Hotel „Fürstenhof“, directly situated in the historic town center of Kempton.
- Special price of € 39,50/night and person in a twin room or € 59,00/night in a single room (delicious German breakfast included). We have reserved a room contingent for Summer School participants as Kempton is quite busy in summer.
- Participants may have lunch at the student cantine (MENSA) or might want to choose from a variety of unexpensive meals at nearby shopping centre „Forum Allgäu“.

Application

- Required documents: completed application form, current certificate of enrolment from your university, passport copy, proof of health insurance
- Registration closes: April 30, 2019
- Confirmation and letter of acceptance will be sent out within a few days after registration.
- If you require a visa, we will provide a letter of invitation.